1. POLICY STATEMENT

The Hawksmoor Learning Trust (THLT) is dedicated to providing the best possible education and support for all pupils within its schools. We believe that every child has an equal right to access full education and to achieve the very best they can within their school.

Therefore, the suspension or exclusion of a child is regarded as a serious sanction, to be utilised only when other strategies have failed, or in the event of a severe violation of the rules. It is the Trust's policy to support children to stay in school wherever possible and to avoid an external suspension or permanent exclusion.

This means having a clear, fair and efficient procedure for dealing with exclusions. This policy makes it clear to staff, supply staff, pupils, parents and governors that every effort is made to encourage children to behave appropriately. However, we accept that for some children school represents a challenge and as such, there may be rare occasions when a formal suspension or exclusion from school is unavoidable.

2. WHO DOES THIS POLICY APPLY TO

The policy sets out guidelines and circumstances under which a pupil may be suspended or permanently excluded from a Hawksmoor Learning Trust (THLT) school and applies to all pupils, including those who may be below or above compulsory school age, at all Trust schools. The policy is available on each school website.

In this policy the term Headteacher also includes any person formally appointed as Head of School or Acting Headteacher.

3. POLICY REVIEW ARRANGEMENTS

This policy is to be reviewed at least every two years alongside other linked policies and/or to reflect directives from the DfE.

4. BASIC PRINCIPLES

The Trustees of The Hawksmoor Learning Trust (THLT) have approved and adopted this policy with the overall aims that:

- Pupils are safe and happy in school.
- Staff are in a safe working environment.
- The school Behaviour Policy should be adhered to at all times. This outlines the strategies to be used for rewarding and sanctioning children in the classroom and around school.
- Suspensions and exclusions should be used as an absolute last resort.
- The suspensions and exclusions process is applied fairly and consistently.
- The suspensions and exclusions process is understood by all governors, staff, parents and pupils.
- Suspensions and exclusions are carried out lawfully.

As a Trust, we are committed to reducing the use of suspensions and exclusions to a minimum and this policy is based around good management practices that seek to address problem behaviour before it reaches a crisis point and provide ongoing processes to encourage good behaviour in all our pupils.

A note on Off-rolling

Our Trust is aware that off-rolling is unlawful. Ofsted defines off-rolling as:

“The practice of removing a pupil from the school roll without a formal, permanent exclusion or by encouraging a parent to remove their child from the school roll, when the removal is primarily in the interests of the school rather than in the best interests of the pupil.”

We will not suspend or exclude pupils unlawfully by directing them off site or not allowing pupils to attend school without following the statutory procedure, contained in the School Discipline \(Pupil Exclusions and Reviews\) \(England\) Regulations 2012, or formally recording the event, such as sending them home to 'cool off'. In addition, we will not suspend or exclude pupils unlawfully:

- Solely because they have special educational needs and/or a disability.
- (SEND) that the school feels unable to support.
- Due to poor academic performance.
- Because they haven't met a specific condition, such as attending a reintegration meeting.
- By exerting undue influence on a parent to encourage them to remove their child from the school.

5. DEFINITIONS

School day – For the purposes of suspensions and exclusions, a school day is defined as any day on which there is a school session. Therefore, INSET or staff training days do not count as a school day.

Suspension – When a pupil is removed from the school for a fixed period. This was previously referred to as a ‘fixed-term exclusion’.

Permanent exclusion – when a pupil is removed from the school permanently and taken off the school roll. This is sometimes referred to as an ‘exclusion’.

Parent – any person who has parental responsibility and any person who has care of the child.

Managed move – when a pupil is transferred to another school permanently. All parties, including parents and the admission authority for the new school, should consent before a managed move occurs.

6. LEGISLATION AND STATUTORY GUIDANCE

This policy is based on statutory guidance from the Department for Education: Suspension and permanent exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England, including pupil movement - from September 2023.

It is based on the following legislation, which outlines schools’ powers to exclude pupils:

- Section 51a of the Education Act 2002, as amended by the Education Act 2011
- The School Discipline (Pupil Exclusions and Reviews) (England) Regulations 2012

In addition, the policy is based on:

- Part 7, chapter 2 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006, which sets out parental responsibility for excluded pupils
- Section 579 of the Education Act 1996, which defines ‘school day’

- The Education \(Provision of Full-Time Education for Excluded Pupils\) \(England\) Regulations 2007, as amended by The Education \(Provision of Full-Time Education for Excluded Pupils\) \(England\) \(Amendment\) Regulations 2014
- The Equality Act 2010
- Children and Families Act 2014

This policy complies with our funding agreement and articles of association.

Where a child's behaviour is consistently giving cause for concern, parents must be informed and preferably involved, and there should be an Individual Support Plan in place.

7. THE DECISION TO SUSPEND OR EXCLUDE

Any decision to suspend or exclude a pupil will be taken only:

- In response to serious or persistent breaches of the school's Behaviour Policy, and
- If allowing the pupil to remain in school would seriously harm the education or welfare of others.

Only the Headteacher, Head of School or Acting Headteacher, can suspend or permanently exclude a pupil from school on disciplinary grounds. The decision can be made in respect of behaviour inside or outside of school. In the case of a permanent exclusion the matter must be discussed and agreed with the THLT CEO (or, in the absence of the CEO, the trust's Designated Safeguarding Trustee). All suspension and permanent exclusion decisions ultimately rest with the Headteacher.

The Headteacher must always notify the Trust CEO and seek advice where any potential suspension or permanent exclusion involves a child with special educational needs or disability (SEND), or a looked after or previously looked-after child, or for any exclusion in which the circumstances are complex. Headteachers may also find it helpful to access the support and advice of their Local Authority.

The Headteacher can suspend a pupil from school (exclude for a fixed period of time). The rare decision to begin the process to permanently exclude a child MUST be discussed with the CEO. The process to permanently exclude a child will be taken as a last resort and when all other possible options have been exhausted.

Before deciding to suspend or exclude a pupil, the Headteacher will:

- Consider all the relevant facts and evidence on the balance of probabilities, including whether the incident(s) leading to the exclusion were provoked.
- Allow the opportunity for the pupil to give their version of events.
- Consider whether the pupil has special educational needs (SEN).
- Consider whether the pupil is especially vulnerable (e.g. the pupil has a social worker, or is a looked-after child (LAC)).
- When considering a permanent exclusion, consider whether all alternative solutions have been explored, such as managed moves if appropriate.

The Headteacher will consider the views of the pupil, in light of their age and understanding, before deciding to suspend or exclude, unless it would not be appropriate to do so.

Pupils who need support to express their views will be allowed to have their views expressed through an advocate, such as a parent or social worker.

The Headteacher will not reach their decision until they have heard from the pupil, unless it is not appropriate to do so, and will inform the pupil of how their views were taken into account when making the decision. If it is not possible to hear from the pupil before making the decision, their views will be sought at the earliest opportunity.

Where a suspension or exclusion is necessary, as well as the distress caused to the pupil and their parents, this is often has a detrimental emotional impact on members of school staff who are involved. Therefore, support from counselling, debriefing sessions and supporting one another is important and encouraged.

8. SUSPENSION

Most suspensions are of short duration (usually between one and three days). The DfE regulations allow the Headteacher to suspend a pupil for one or more fixed periods not exceeding 45 days in any one school year.

Following a suspension decision, parents are contacted immediately. A letter (see Appendix 5) will be sent, giving the reason for the suspension, details about it and the date the suspension ends. Parents have a right to make representations as directed in the letter.

A Return to School meeting will be held following the expiry of the suspension, and this will involve the Headteacher or a member of the school senior leadership team and other staff where appropriate.

During the course of a suspension where the pupil is to be at home, parents are advised that the pupil is not allowed on the school premises and that daytime supervision is their responsibility as parents/guardians or carers.

Records relating to suspension will be stored confidentially and in line with Trust GDPR policies.

9. PERMANENT EXCLUSION

The decision to exclude a pupil permanently is a serious one. There are two main situations in which permanent exclusion may be considered.

The first is a final, formal step in a process for dealing with disciplinary offences which follows the use of a wide range of other strategies that have been used without success. It is an acknowledgement that all available strategies have been exhausted and is used as a last resort. This would include persistent and defiant misbehaviour.

The second is where there are exceptional circumstances and it is not appropriate to implement other strategies, and where it could be appropriate to permanently exclude a pupil for a first or 'one off' offence. These might include:

- Serious or threatened violence against another pupil or member of staff.
- Behaviour which poses a significant risk to the child's own safety.

These examples are not exhaustive but indicate the severity of such offences and the fact that such behaviour seriously affects the discipline and wellbeing of the school.

10. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Roles and Responsibilities - The Headteacher

The Headteacher will be responsible for ensuring that parents/guardians, the Local Academy Board and the THLT CEO are appropriately informed.

The Headteacher will ensure that appropriate procedures are followed for the removal of a permanently excluded child from the school register (Appendix 1).

Informing Parents

If a pupil is at risk of suspension or exclusion the Headteacher will inform the parents as early as possible, in order to work together to consider what factors may be affecting the pupil's behaviour, and what further support can be put in place to improve the behaviour.

If the Headteacher decides to suspend or exclude a pupil, the parents will be informed whenever possible, by phone or in person of the period of the suspension or exclusion and the reason(s) for it, without delay.

The Headteacher will also provide the following information in writing to the parents of a suspended or excluded pupil:

- The reason(s) for the suspension or permanent exclusion.
- The length of the suspension or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent.
- Information about parents' right to make representations about the suspension or permanent exclusion to the Local Academy Board and, where the pupil is attending alongside the parents, how they may be involved in this.
- How representations should be made.
- Where there is a legal requirement for the Local Academy Board to hold a meeting to consider the reinstatement of a pupil, and that parents have a right to attend the meeting, be represented at the meeting (at their own expense) and bring a friend.
- That parents have the right to request that the meetings will be held remotely, and how and to whom they should make this request.

Further guidance on informing parents can be found in Appendix 1.

Informing the Local Academy Board and the Trust

Following any decision to suspend or exclude a pupil, the Headteacher must notify the Local Academy Board and the Trust CEO without delay of:

- Any permanent exclusion, including when a suspension is followed by a decision to permanently exclude a pupil.
- Any suspension that would result in the pupil being suspended for more than five school days (or more than 10 lunchtimes) in a term.
- Any suspension or permanent exclusion that would result in the pupil missing a national curriculum test.
- Any suspension or permanent exclusion that has been cancelled, including the reason for the cancellation.

For all other suspensions, the Headteacher will notify the Local Academy Board and the Trust once a term through the Headteacher's Report to Governors.

Informing the Local Authority (LA)

The Headteacher will notify the LA of all suspensions and permanent exclusions without delay, regardless of the length of a suspension. This is usually done via the Capita One system.

The notification will include:

- The reason(s) for the suspension or permanent exclusion.
- The length of a suspension or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent.

For a permanent exclusion, if the pupil lives outside the LA in which the school is located, the Headteacher will also, without delay, inform the pupil's 'home authority' of the exclusion and the reason(s) for it.

The Headteacher must notify the LA without delay of any cancelled exclusions, including the reason the exclusion was cancelled.

Informing the pupil's social worker and/or virtual school head (VSH).

If a:

- Pupil with a social worker is at risk of suspension or permanent exclusion, the Headteacher will inform the social worker as early as possible.
- Pupil who is a looked-after child (LAC) is at risk of suspension or exclusion, the Headteacher will inform the VSH as early as possible.

This is in order to work together to consider what factors may be affecting the pupil's behaviour, and what further support can be put in place to improve the behaviour.

If the Headteacher decides to suspend or permanently exclude a pupil with a social worker/a pupil who is looked-after, they will inform the pupil's social worker/the VSH, as appropriate, without delay, that:

- They have decided to suspend or permanently exclude the pupil
- The reason(s) for the decision
- The length of the suspension or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent
- The suspension or permanent exclusion affects the pupil's ability to sit a National Curriculum test (where relevant)
- They have decided to cancel a suspension or permanent exclusion, and why (where relevant).

The social worker/VSH will be invited to any meeting of the Local Academy Board about the suspension or permanent exclusion. This is so that they can provide advice on how the pupil's background and/or circumstances that may have influenced the circumstances of their suspension or permanent exclusion. The social worker should also help ensure safeguarding needs and risks and the pupil's welfare are taken into account.

Cancelling suspensions and Permanent Exclusions

The Headteacher may cancel a suspension or permanent exclusion that has already begun, or one that has not yet begun, but only where it has not yet been reviewed by the Local Academy Board. Where there is a cancellation:

- The parents, Local Academy Board and LA will be notified without delay.
- Where relevant, any social worker and VSH will be notified without delay.
- The notification must provide the reason for the cancellation.

- The Local Academy Board's duty to hold a meeting and consider reinstatement ceases.
- Parents will be offered the opportunity to meet with the Headteacher to discuss the cancellation, which will be arranged without delay.
- The pupil will be allowed back in school without delay.

Any days spent out of school as a result of any exclusion, prior to the cancellation, will count towards the maximum of 45 school days permitted in any school year.

A permanent exclusion cannot be cancelled if the pupil has already been excluded for more than 45 school days in a school year or if they will have been so by the time the cancellation takes effect.

Providing Education during the First Five Days of a Suspension or Permanent Exclusion

During the first five days of a suspension, if the pupil is not attending alternative (AP) provision, the Headteacher will take steps to ensure that achievable and accessible work is set and marked for the pupil. Online provision recommended by the school may be used for this. If the pupil has a special educational need or disability, the Headteacher will make sure that reasonable adjustments are made to the provision where necessary.

If the pupil is looked after or if they have a social worker, the school will work with the LA to arrange AP from the first day following the suspension or permanent exclusion. Where this isn't possible, the school will take reasonable steps to set and mark work for the pupil, including the use of online pathways.

b. Roles and Responsibilities - The Local Academy Board

Considering Suspensions and Permanent exclusions

Responsibilities regarding exclusions are delegated to an exclusions panel of three members drawn from the Local Academy Board or other governors from across the Trust as appropriate.

The exclusions panel has a duty to consider parents' representations about a suspension or permanent exclusion. It has a duty to consider the reinstatement of a suspended or permanently excluded pupil (see Appendix 2) in certain circumstances.

Within 14 days of receiving a request, the Local Academy Board will provide the secretary of state with information about any suspensions or exclusions within the last 12 months.

For any suspension of more than five school days, the Local Academy Board will arrange suitable full-time education for the pupil. This provision will begin no later than the sixth day of the suspension.

Monitoring and Analysing Suspensions and Exclusions Data

The Local Academy Board will review, challenge and evaluate the data on the school's use of suspension, exclusion, off-site direction to alternative provision, and managed moves.

The Local Academy Board will consider:

- How effectively and consistently the school's behaviour policy is being implemented.
- The school register and absence codes.
- Instances where pupils receive repeat suspensions.
- Interventions in place to support pupils at risk of suspension or permanent exclusion.
- Any variations in the rolling average of permanent exclusions, to understand why this is happening, and to make sure they are only used when necessary.

- Timing of moves and permanent exclusions, and whether there are any patterns, including any indications which may highlight where policies or support are not working.
- The characteristics of suspended and permanently excluded pupils, and why this is taking place.
- Whether the placements of pupils directed off-site into alternative provision are reviewed at sufficient intervals to assure that the education is achieving its objectives and that pupils are benefiting from it.
- The cost implications of directing pupils off-site..

c. Roles and Responsibilities - The Trust

If parents apply for an independent review, the Trust will arrange for an independent panel to review the decision of the Local Academy Board not to reinstate a permanently excluded pupil. Applications for an independent review must be made within 15 school days of notice being given to the parents by the Local Academy Board of its decision to not reinstate a pupil.

The Trust will ensure that all members of an independent review panel and clerks have received training within the two years prior to the date of the review. Please see Appendix 3 for further guidance.

d. Roles and Responsibilities – The Local Authority

For permanent exclusions, the LA is responsible for arranging suitable full-time education to begin no later than the sixth day after the first day of the exclusion.

For pupils who are looked-after or have social workers, the LA and the school will work together to arrange suitable full-time education to begin from the first day of the exclusion.

11. RETURNING FROM A SUSPENSION

Following a suspension, a reintegration meeting will be held involving the pupil, parents, a member of senior staff and other staff, where appropriate.

Additional measures may be implemented when a pupil returns from a fixed term suspension, for example:

- Agreeing a behaviour contract.
- Implementation of a positive reward plan or report system.
- Implementation of a support plan.

a. Reintegration Strategy

Following suspension, or cancelled suspension or exclusion, the school will put in place a strategy to help the pupil reintegrate successfully into school life and fulltime education.

Where necessary, the school will work with third-party organisations to identify whether the pupil has any unmet special educational and/or health needs.

The following measures may be implemented, as part of the strategy, to ensure a successful reintegration into school life for the pupil:

- Maintaining regular contact during the suspension or off-site direction and welcoming the pupil back to school.
- Daily (e.g. morning) meet and greet session.
- Regular contact in school with designated staff.
- Mentoring by a trusted adult.

- Allocation of a peer ‘buddy’.
- Implementation of a behaviour reward system.
- Regular reviews with the pupil and parents to praise progress being made and raise and address any concerns at an early stage.
- Informing the pupil, parents, and staff of potential external support.

Part-time timetables will not be used as a tool to manage behaviour; however, they may be used in exceptional circumstances to support a pupil’s wellbeing or pastoral needs. If used, part-time timetables will be put in place for the minimum time necessary and with the aim of building up to full-time attendance.

The strategy will be regularly reviewed and adapted where necessary throughout the reintegration process in collaboration with the pupil, parents, and other relevant parties.

b. Reintegration Meetings

The school will clearly explain the reintegration strategy to the pupil in a reintegration meeting before or on the pupil’s return to school. During the meeting the school will communicate to the pupil that they are getting a fresh start and that they are a valued member of the school community.

The pupil, parents, a member of senior staff, and any other relevant staff will be invited to attend the meeting. The meeting can proceed without the parents in the event that they cannot or do not attend.

The school expects all returning pupils and their parents to attend their reintegration meeting, but pupils who do not attend will not be prevented from returning to the classroom.

12. REMOTE ACCESS TO MEETINGS

Parents can request that a Local Academy Board meeting, or independent review panel be held remotely. If the parents don’t express a preference, the meeting will be held in person.

In case of extraordinary or unforeseen circumstances, which mean it is not reasonably practicable for the meeting to be held in person, the meeting will be held remotely.

Remotely accessed meetings are subject to the same procedural requirements as in-person meetings.

The Local Academy Board and the Trust should make sure that the following conditions are met before agreeing to let a meeting proceed remotely:

- All the participants have access to the technology which will allow them to hear, speak, see and be seen.
- All the participants will be able participate fully.
- The remote meeting can be held fairly and transparently.

Social workers and the VSH always have the option of joining remotely, whether the meeting is being held in person or not, as long as they can meet the conditions for remote access listed above.

The meeting will be rearranged to an in-person meeting without delay if technical issues arise that can’t be reasonably resolved and:

- Compromise the ability of participants to contribute effectively, or,
- Prevent the meeting from running fairly and transparently.

13. MONITORING ARRANGEMENTS

The school will collect data on the following:

- Attendance, permanent exclusions and suspensions.
- Use of pupil referral units, off-site directions and managed moves.
- Anonymous surveys of staff, pupils, governors/trustees and other stakeholders on their perceptions and experiences.

The data will be analysed regularly by the Headteacher. The Headteacher will report back to the Local Academy Board.

The data will be analysed from a variety of perspectives including:

- At school level.
- By age group.
- By time of day/week/term.
- By protected characteristic.

The school will use the results of this analysis to make sure it is meeting its duties under the Equality Act 2010. If any patterns or disparities between groups of pupils are identified by this analysis, the school will review its policies in order to tackle it.

The Trust will work with its school to consider this data, and to analyse whether there are patterns across the Trust, recognising that numbers in any one school may be too low to allow for meaningful statistical analysis. The CEO will monitor the number of suspensions and exclusions every term on behalf of the Trust and reports back to the Board of Trustees.

This suspensions and exclusions policy is linked to the

- School's behaviour policy.
- SEND policy.
- SEND information report.
- Safeguarding and child protection policy.

Appendix 3 Guidance to Inform Parents of Suspension and Exclusion Arrangements

If the pupil is of compulsory school age, the Headteacher will also notify parents without delay and by the end of the afternoon session on the first day their child is suspended or permanently excluded, that:

- For the first five school days of an exclusion (or until the start date of any alternative provision or the end of the suspension, where this is earlier), the parents are legally required to ensure that their child is not present in a public place during school hours without a good reason. This will include specifying on which days this duty applies.
- Parents may be given a fixed penalty notice or prosecuted if they fail to do this.

If alternative provision is being arranged, the following information will be included, if possible:

- The start date for any provision of full-time education that has been arranged.
- The start and finish times of any such provision, including the times for morning and afternoon sessions, where relevant.
- The address at which the provision will take place.
- Any information the pupil needs in order to identify the person they should report to on the first day.

If the Headteacher does not have all the information about the alternative provision arrangements by the end of the afternoon session on the first day of the suspension or permanent exclusion, they can provide the information at a later date, without delay and no later than 48 hours before the provision is due to start.

The only exception to this is where alternative provision is to be provided before the sixth day of a suspension or permanent exclusion, in which case the school reserves the right to provide the information with less than 48 hours' notice, with parents' consent.

If the Headteacher cancels the suspension or permanent exclusion, they will notify parents without delay, and provide a reason for the cancellation.

Model letters to parents can be found in Appendixes 5, 6, 7 and 8.

Appendix 4 Considering the Re-instatement of a Pupil

The Local Academy Board exclusion panel will consider and decide on the reinstatement of a suspended or permanently excluded pupil within 15 school days of receiving the notice of the suspension or exclusion if:

- The exclusion is permanent.
- It is a suspension which would bring the pupil's total number of days out of school to more than 15 in a term; or,
- It would result in a pupil missing a National Curriculum test.

Where the pupil has been suspended, and the suspension does not bring the pupil's total number of days of suspension to more than five in a term, the Local Academy Board exclusion panel must consider any representations made by parents. However, it is not required to arrange a meeting with parents and it cannot direct the Headteacher to reinstate the pupil.

Where the pupil has been suspended for more than five, but not more than 15 school days, in a single term, and the parents make representations to the board, the Local Academy Board exclusion panel will consider and decide on the reinstatement of a suspended pupil within 50 school days of receiving notice of the suspension. If the parents do not make representations, the board is not required to meet and it cannot direct the Headteacher to reinstate the pupil.

Where a suspension or permanent exclusion would result in a pupil missing a National Curriculum test, the Local Academy Board exclusion panel will, as far as reasonably practicable, consider and decide on the reinstatement of the pupil before the date of the test. If this is not practicable, the Local Academy Board exclusion panel may consider the suspension or permanent exclusion and decide whether or not to reinstate the pupil.

- The following parties will be invited to a meeting of the Local Academy Board exclusion panel and allowed to make representations or share information:
- Parents (and, where requested, a representative or friend).
- The pupil, if they are aged 17 or younger and it would be appropriate to their age and understanding (and, where requested, a representative or friend).
- The Headteacher.
- The pupil's social worker, if they have one.
- The VSH, if the pupil is looked-after.

Local Academy Board exclusion panel meetings can be held remotely at the request of parents. See Section 12 for more details on remote access to meetings.

The Local Academy Board will try to arrange the meeting within the statutory time limits set out above and must try to have it at a time that suits all relevant parties. However, its decision will not be invalid simply on the grounds that it was not made within these time limits.

The Local Academy Board exclusion panel can either:

- Decline to reinstate the pupil, or,
- Direct the reinstatement of the pupil immediately, or on a particular date (except in cases where the board cannot do this – see earlier in this Appendix).
- In reaching a decision, the Local Academy Board exclusion panel will consider:
- Whether the decision to suspend or permanently exclude was lawful, reasonable, and procedurally fair.
- Whether the Headteacher followed their legal duties.

- The welfare and safeguarding of the pupil and their peers.
- Any evidence that was presented to the exclusion panel.

They will decide whether or not a fact is true 'on the balance of probabilities'.

The governance professional will be present when the decision is made.

Minutes will be taken of the meeting, and a record kept of the evidence that was considered. The outcome will also be recorded on the pupil's educational record, and copies of relevant papers will be kept with this record.

The Local Academy Board exclusion panel will notify, in writing, the following stakeholders of its decision, along with reasons for its decision, without delay:

- The parents.
- The Headteacher.
- The pupil's social worker, if they have one.
- The VSH, if the pupil is looked-after.
- The local authority.
- The pupil's home authority, if it differs from the school's.

Where an exclusion is permanent and the Local Academy Board exclusion panel has decided not to reinstate the pupil, the notification of decision will also include the following:

- The fact that it is a permanent exclusion
- Notice of parents' right to ask for the decision to be reviewed by an independent review panel
- The date by which an application for an independent review must be made (15 school days from the date on which notice in writing of the exclusion panel's decision is given to parents), and:
 - The name and address to which an application for a review and any written evidence should be submitted
 - That any application should set out the grounds on which it is being made and that, where appropriate, it should include reference to how the pupil's special educational needs (SEN) are considered to be relevant to the permanent exclusion
 - That, regardless of whether the excluded pupil has recognised SEN, parents have a right to require the Trust to appoint an SEN expert to advise the review panel
 - Details of the role of the SEN expert and that there would be no cost to parents for this appointment
 - That parents must make clear if they wish for an SEN expert to be appointed in any application for a review
 - That parents may, at their own expense, appoint someone to make written and/or oral representations to the panel, and parents may also bring a friend to the review
- That, if parents believe that the permanent exclusion has occurred as a result of unlawful discrimination, they may make a claim under the Equality Act 2010 to the first-tier tribunal (special educational needs and disability), in the case of disability discrimination, or the county court, in the case of other forms of discrimination. Also, that any claim of discrimination made under these routes should be lodged within six months of the date on which the discrimination is alleged to have taken place.

Appendix 5 An independent Review

If parents apply for an independent review within the legal timeframe,

The Hawksmoor Learning Trust (THLT) will, at their own expense, arrange for an independent panel to review the decision of the Local Academy Board exclusion panel not to reinstate a permanently excluded pupil.

Applications for an independent review must be made within 15 school days of notice being given to the parents by the Local Academy Board exclusion panel of its decision to not reinstate the pupil or, if after this time, within 15 school days of the final determination of a claim of discrimination under the Equality Act 2010 regarding the permanent exclusion. Any applications made outside of this timeframe will be rejected.

Independent reviews can be held remotely at the request of parents. See Section 12 of this policy for more details on remote access to meetings.

A panel of three or five members will be constituted with representatives from each of the categories below. Where a five-member panel is constituted, two members will come from the school governor category and two members will come from the headteacher category. At all times during the review process there must be the required representation on the panel.

- A lay member to chair the panel who has not worked in any school in a paid capacity, disregarding any experience as a school governor or volunteer.
- Current or former school governors who have served as a governor for at least 12 consecutive months in the last five years, provided they have not been teachers or headteachers during this time.
- Headteachers or individuals who have been a headteacher within the last five years.

A person may not serve as a member of a review panel if they:

- Are a member or director of THLT or a governor of the excluding school.
- Are the Headteacher of the excluding school, or have held this position in the last five years.
- Are an employee of THLT, or the governing board of the excluding school (unless they are employed as a headteacher at another school).
- Have, or at any time have had, any connection with THLT, school, Local Academy Board, parents or pupil, or the incident leading to the exclusion, which might reasonably be taken to raise doubts about their impartiality.
- Have not had the required training within the last two years (see below for what training must cover).

A governance professional will be appointed to the panel.

The panel must consider the interests and circumstances of the pupil, including the circumstances in which the pupil was permanently excluded, and have regard to the interests of other pupils and people working at the school.

Taking into account the pupil's age and understanding, the pupil or their parents will be made aware of their right to attend and participate in the review meeting and the pupil should be enabled to make representations on their own behalf, should they desire to.

Where a SEN expert is present, the panel must seek and have regard to the SEN expert's view of how SEN may be relevant to the pupil's permanent exclusion.

Where a social worker is present, the panel must have regard to any representation made by the social worker of how the pupil's experiences, needs, safeguarding risks and/or welfare may be relevant to the pupil's permanent exclusion.

Where a VSH is present, the panel must have regard to any representation made by the social worker of how any of the child's background, education and safeguarding needs were considered by the Headteacher in the lead up to the permanent exclusion, or are relevant to the pupil's permanent exclusion.

Following its review, the independent panel will decide to do one of the following:

- Uphold the Local Academy Board exclusion panel's decision.
- Recommend that the Local Academy Board reconsiders reinstatement.
- Quash the Local Academy Board exclusion panel's decision and direct that they reconsider reinstatement (only if it judges that the decision was flawed).

New evidence may be presented, though the school cannot introduce new reasons for the permanent exclusion or the decision not to reinstate. The panel must disregard any new reasons that are introduced.

In deciding whether the decision was flawed, and therefore whether to quash the decision not to reinstate, the panel must only take account of the evidence that was available to the Local Academy Board exclusion panel at the time of making its decision. This includes any evidence that the panel considers would, or should, have been available to the exclusion panel and that it ought to have considered if it had been acting reasonably.

If evidence is presented that the panel considers it is unreasonable to expect the exclusion panel to have been aware of at the time of its decision, the panel can take account of the evidence when deciding whether to recommend that the Local Academy Board reconsider reinstatement.

The panel's decision can be decided by a majority vote. In the case of a tied decision, the chair has the casting vote.

Once the panel has reached its decision, the panel will notify all parties in writing without delay.

This notification will include:

- The panel's decision and the reasons for it.
- Where relevant, details of any financial readjustment or payment to be made if the governing board does not subsequently decide to offer to reinstate the pupil within 10 school days.
- Any information that the panel has directed the governing board to place on the pupil's educational record.

Independent Review Panel Training

THLT will ensure that all members of an independent review panel and governance professional have received training within the two years prior to the date of the review.

Training must have covered:

- The requirements of the primary legislation, regulations and statutory guidance governing suspensions and exclusions, which would include an understanding of how the principles applicable in an application for judicial review relate to the panel's decision making.
- The need for the panel to observe procedural fairness and the rules of natural justice.
- The role of the chair and the governance professional of a review panel.
- The duties of Headteachers, governing boards and the panel under the Equality Act 2010.
- The effect of Section 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998 (acts of public authorities unlawful if not compatible with certain human rights) and the need to act in a manner compatible with human rights protected by that Act.

Appendix 6 School registers

A pupil's name will be removed from the school admissions register if:

- 15 school days have passed since the parents were notified of the exclusion panel's decision to not reinstate the pupil and no application has been made for an independent review panel, or,
- The parents have stated in writing that they will not be applying for an independent review panel.

Where an application for an independent review has been made, the Local Academy Board will wait until the review has concluded before removing a pupil's name from the register.

Where alternative provision has been made for an excluded pupil and they attend, code B (education off-site) or code D (dual registration) will be used on the attendance register.

Where excluded pupils are not attending alternative provision, code E (absent) will be used.
